Richings from the Religious world
BY
Thomas Charlton Henry D.D.
Late Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church
Charleston S. Carolina -

When I bethink me, on that speed which of mutability and well it weeps
We deem that things are all transitory
Of the heavenly realm, yet very soon to say
In all things else, the heart is greatly wrong
Which makes me lose the state of life is truth
And love of things is vain and cast away
Which flowing fast so fading and so frail
That time shall soon cut down into the ever-aging vale -

Then yet I think on that which nature teach
Of that divine time when no more change shall be
But steadfast rest of all things firmly stay'd
Upon the pillars of eternity
That is contrary to mutability
In all that moves there is change & decay
But home is still all shall rest eternally
With him that is the God of Sabbath rest
Oh that great Sabbath rest grant us that Sabbath rest.
Spencer

For purifying the blood, and removing all diseases arising from the impurity of the same, and is especially recommended for the cure of Syphilism, Scrophula, Erysipelas, Ulceration of the Throat and Lungs, Swell and discharge of the Veins, Etc. &c. &c. in for assisting the Operation and preventing fatal consequences of Mercurials in syphilis.

For the Composition of this preparation, and the Medicinal properties of the Queen's Delight, Physicians are respectfully referred to the 5th & 6th Nos. Vol. 1. of the "Southern Journal of Medicine and Pharmacy".

The "Southern Journal of Medicine and Pharmacy" deserves much more notice than has been bestowed upon it. It has been used for the last ten or fifteen years, by several of our most distinguished Physicians, and I believe they have never had cause to deny to it a high rank among our indigenous medical Journals.
